PROF. RAND SUCCUMBS

Makes Statement Before Death Concerning the Shooting.

Bolivar Falls, Pa., Nov. 22.—Prof. John A. Rand, who was shot by (Mrs. W. Schaefer, died at the home of Mrs. Mary Parker, where he had boarded off and on for 14 years.

In his dying statement made to Justice Piper, Prof. Rand stated that he had been shot by Schaefer and that he did not see Schaefer until after the first shot had been fired. There were five shots fired, only one of which struck Rand, the bullet entering the back under the right shoulder blade, penetrating the lung and lodging under the breast bone.

Rand said that he knew of no reason why Schaefer should shoot him unless it would be on account of some trouble they had had at Schaefer's farm, where Rand and Miss Sadie Glass, one of the teachers in Rand's Commercial college, had taken rooms. At that time Rand stopped between Schaefer and Mrs. Schaefer during a family quarrel.

While Schaefer was being taken to the lock-up he was asked why he had shot Rand. He replied that it was due to domestic trouble. Later he said Rand had "ruined his home."

Rand was about 47 years old and came here from near Ravenswood, W. Va., about 14 years ago. He had been the owner of the Rand Commercial college for years, with branches in New Brighton and Rochester. Rand, his wife and son made their home at Rochester. Mrs. Rand was brought to the Parker house and remained until her husband expired.

The Attractive Features of This Sale Are Causing Wonderful Selling.

The lowest November prices you've ever known--merchandise of unquestioned quality--A chance to win $10 in Gold with every purchase.

We've had some very successful sales in the past, but taking all things into consideration the attendance and public interest given this sale surpasses that given any previous sale we've ever conducted. The attendance, in fact, is one of its most interesting features--selling has been tremendous and will continue to be until this pre-holiday sale closes--Saturday night. Besides the attractiveness of the sale prices, there is a lively interest being shown in the "prize feature of the sale." Every person, it seems, who has a need is filling it here at either sale or regular prices. It's logical that they should do this, as every purchase, large or small, entitles the purchaser to a chance to win $10 in Gold.

We Give Away $10 in Gold Each Day.

Here Are the Numbers that Have Already Won $10

WORKING FOR A PURPOSE.

Those Who Have a Definite Object in Life Are Happiest.

Have you an object in life, or are you just drifting, with the tide without any fixed purpose? You'll be happier if you set out to accomplish something definite—a home, a small business of your own, or an interest in some good cause. To be able to do these things money is necessary, and the best way to make certain of having money when your opportunity comes is to save it. The First National Bank of Connelville adds you to accumulate money by allowing 4 per cent. compound interest on Savings Accounts and insuring you with a little Home Safe, free.

Made in New York
